The Kaleidoscope of 1950

Published By THE SENIOR CLASS
Of
HOPEWELL HIGH SCHOOL
Hopewell, Virginia

Russell Haddock MacMeans

Dedication . . .

We, the Senior Class of 1950, with great pride and pleasure, dedicate our edition of the Kaleidoscope to

Russell Haddock MacMeans

A gentleman and accomplished musician whose sincerity, kindly manner and recognized leadership, understanding and boundless patience have proved a constant inspiration.

In dedicating our yearbook to Mr. MacMeans we acknowledge our gratitude to and appreciation of a great teacher, a true gentleman, a friend and companion whom we shall long remember with love, admiration, and respect.

Alma Mater

In the heart of Hopewell City,
Wonderful for you,
Is our dear old Alma Mater
Of the gold and blue.
Open your hearts to hear her praises
And you'll never fail.
Hail, to thee, our Alma Mater
Hopewell High School, Hail!

Class Prophecy

It is the year 1960 and floating over the new Hopewell Stadium comes the lilting voice of Miss Jackie Ivey, famous the world over as the "golden voice of radio." She is here today to broadcast "the" game of the year between Hopewell and Notre Dame. The former, having won the State Championship for ten straight years, decided to schedule stronger opposition. Let's listen to Miss Ivey for a moment. "Ladies, and gentlemen, too, welcome to the Homecoming of the Class of 1950. It is a beautiful day here at the Weezle Bowl and it seems as though the whole United States has turned out for the big event. Attention, all alumni, please sit in the reserved section on the far side of the field. And, now a word from our sponsor, Blah, blah" Now we are back struggling through the jams of people to the reserved section. Why, there are some of our former cheerleaders, Jane Lanier, Nancy Gaskins, Nancy Butterworth, and Anne Vance, who are now career girls. They flew down from New York for the big game. Girls, aren't those men over there rather familiar? Why, certainly, they are former Hopewell football stars. They also made history at Notre Dame, and have come to see both of their Alma Maters clash today. Remember them? They are James Ashton, Clyde Balderson, Madison Elmore, Wilton Barco, Glen Krumel, Bob Askew, Thomas Pentacost, and James Edwards. Well, Notre Dame will be playing against the great team known as Merner's Muscleheads. By the way, Merner is going to Annapolis next year to coach Navy's big team. Nick Klonis has been signed up to lead the Devils to victory next year.

More news from the pressbox! Isn't that? Why, yes, there are Sidney Kesler, and Milton Alford working the controls. We can see a few other celebrities up there. Look, Miss Jean Olive and Mr. Frank Price, rival editors, are gathering news for their extra editions which they expect to publish immediately after this game. A commercial has just been announced which causes quite a murmur among the spectators. There is to be quite an after-the-game affair at "Jeffie's Country Club" owned by Eugene Jefferson, with a song and dance specialty by the nationally famous but none other than our own Gail "Blues" Van Benthuisen.

The few last-minute arrivals are trying desperately to find a seat. Pushing their way through the mob, we see former Dotsy McCracken, Mary Payne, Shirley Jones, and Jackie Janosik (who have left their husbands at home baby-sitting). Well, the time has finally arrived for the kick-off, as officials Manual Gankakis and Garland Sasser walk out onto the field with the "Blue Devils" Co-Captains, while from the opponent's side approach Referees Arthur Bennett and Pete Wells. Among the outstanding voices cheering, we hear Laura Belle Miller, Floy Hargrave, Ruth Meadows, Dotty Murty, and Naomi Synan, who have kept their lungs in fine yelling condition for this important game.

The Hopewell High School Band is assembling to perform their usual pre-game entertainment. The band, by the way, is being directed by "Uncle Mac" for the last year. He is moving up to Annapolis with Coach Merner to conduct the mighty Navy Band. Joseph Synan is expected to take over the H. H. S. Band next year.

Let's take time out now to buy our refreshments for the game. Here comes Leon Halkos who has done quite well for himself these past few years manufacturing and selling his famous "Halkos" trade mark peanuts, popcorn, and candy.

Class Prophecy

His business has grown quite large and he is now assisted by William Davis, Bobby Cross, Jack Boyette, and Bobby Burijon.

There goes the kick-off! It looks as though we will see some exciting football today. The first quarter is now in progress and it looks as though it will be a close score. Wait, there's a casualty on the field! There go Doctor W. C. Wright and Doctor Simms. They are assisted by nurses Bernice Budge, Maureen Butler, and Frances Burnett. The crowd breathes a sigh of relief as it is announced over the public-address system that the casualty was nothing serious—only a broken eyelash. At the half-time, the score is a deadlock, 0-0. As we are now hungry for more refreshments, we head to the new concession booth, "The Brown Football", managed by Clayton England and Don Opocensky. Their wonderful food is prepared under the direction of the famous dietitian Frances Gurkin and served by a capable hostess, one with a big smile, Cora Harris. Looks as though we're not the only ones who need more energy for the last half of the game. Wesley Garrett, the big game hunter, with his friend Harry Collier, the star pitcher for the New York Yankees, are standing right beside us. With them is Gilbert "Pretzel" Hays, the new stunt man for the Barnum and Bailey Shows. Out on the field, the Notre Dame band is taking its turn in entertaining the spectators. They are directed by Oliver Harris, better known to all as "Uncle" Butch. Stepping high in front of the band is head-majorette, Elsie Pacine, who takes time off from her career to march with the band. Some of the band members, who have come a long way in the field of music since high school, are Frank Davis, and George "Blowbody" Harris.

After a fine performance, the band leaves the field and the second half gets underway. Once again in our seats, we watch throughout the entire third and fourth quarters with anxiety, as the game fast becomes football history. There goes the final whistle! The Score! Hopewell-0, Notre Dame-0.

As soon as we can push our way out of the gates, we will go to the Country Club for the big banquet and dance. Well, here's another crowd of people with the same idea, only they seem to be having a lot of fun pushing people around. Their leaders seem to be Jimmy Buyalos and Jerry Collier and following them are Tom Swann, Eddie Buyalos, and Herbert Keenan. They have to get there early to make sure they get good seats for the floor-show. Upon entering the Club, our hats and coats are checked by Jewel McLean, Florine Grosch, and Shirley Dale. They say that "Home is where you hang your hat" and these girls will have no trouble in finding a new home as soon as the right man checks his hat. We are lucky to be seated so near the head-table in order to hear the speakers better. The honored speakers tonight will be Joyce Northcote, famous woman lawyer, Jimmy Heflin, the big-business man, and Celia Davis, who is now a famous name in politics. A last-minute telegram arrives announcing that Lois Turpin, famed archeologist, will not be able to return from Egypt in time for the banquet. However, she sends a large bone for the soup, as consolation. The meal for the banquet was prepared by those famous chefs, Haney Lee Robertson, Russell Baker, and Carroll Glass, who have brought many French recipes along for this occasion.

While waiting for the ball-room to be cleared for the dance and floor-show, let's duck into the powder-room for last minute retouches. The line waiting for use of the mirrors is almost as long as the one at the ticket offices this afternoon before the game. Ahead of us are Beverly Morris, Sidney Platt, Thelma Rickman, Emily Uhrich, and Charlotte Warthan. After talking to them a few minutes we find that struggling through that shorthand class wasn't so bad after all, for each is now a secretary to a rich, handsome bachelor.

Returning to our table in the ball room, we listen to Justice's Jazz Jumpers (directed by Eddie Justice) warming up for their night's work. Soloists in his band are: soprano, Helen Daugherty, and bass, Gene Fulcher.

Roaming about the room calling "cigars, cigarettes," we hear a familiar voice. Here comes Elva Connelly, one of the most efficient cigarette-girls to be found anywhere.

Sitting right next to us are those lovely models Fifi Carter, Lillian Calley, Ann Wilkinson, and Nancy Drake, each in the company of a handsome escort. Who wouldn't want to escort one of them!

The lights are now turned low as the floor-show begins. First on the program is a group of Rockette girls among whom are many of our Class of '50. First in line leading them on the stage is Fred Astaire and his new dancing partner, "Carolyn", better known to us as Carolyn Burnette, before she made her debut on Broadway. Following close behind are a group of precision Pavlovas: Evelyn Moore, Rachel Clark, Peggy Elrod, Fielding Christian, Jeanne Fleetwood, and Irene Zevgolis. Next on the program is a Magic Act, performed by Ted "Rabbit-in-the-Hat" Drake. As you know, all magicians must have an assistant. Well, Ted has them all beat, for he has three: Barbara Parrish, Marie Ellis, and Evelyn Cibula. This performance is followed by many more, but that gives you a small idea of some of the talent in the Class of '50.

Now, it's on to the dancing. The first number is a slow one and nearly everyone is out on the dance-floor. Some of the most outstanding dancers are Christine Chapman, Mary Cadger, and Elva Norwood, who are all famous dress-designers and are each wearing one of her own stunning creations. Standing on the sidelines are Hurley Crocker, one of the Nation's top basketball coaches, Ronnie Brown, the nation-wide midget auto racer, and Harold England, one of Notre Dame's youngest professors.

Over by the "candy" bar are Gilbert Partin, and Eugene Setchel, talking to the manager who, incidentally, is Carl Vaughan, whose motto is: "You name it; I have it."

This has really been a day to remember, and all of us dread hearing the last song. It looks as though Marjorie Robinson, Marie Hammonds, Ann Watson, and Daphne Wiggs won't hear it, for they must get their beauty-rest in order to be in condition for another strenuous day at the office. Well, there goes the final note of the song, which also means the end to this wonderful day. This reunion has given us a chance to see how the Class of '50 has prospered, and we hope that we may have many more that will be just as wonderful.

Class Poem

A parting word from those who have so faithfully expressed Their love, their hope, and loyalty for dear old H. H. S.

The Senior Class of '50 bids the school
a fond adieu.
We leave it now with trusting hands to every one of you.

So through the years we'll not forget our teachers' guiding hands.
In youth we've learned and now in age
we all must understand.

Each class we've had, each friend we've made have given added zest
To every thought that we will treasure in our memory chest.

But now our high school days have passed and we have spent them well.
The time has come to be dismissed—
the last dismissal bell.

Throughout the halls of Hopewell High an echo lingers on,
As 1950 takes her place beneath the high school dome.

Student Council

The object of this organization is to develop in the student the power of self-government by teaching him through active participation in school government his responsibilities and duties to his fellow students and school, and thus to secure the training necessary for good citizenship. A president who must be nominated from the senior class, a vice-president who must be nominated from the junior class and a secretary who may be nominated from any class, are elected by popular vote of the entire student body to head the organization. These officers, together with a representative chosen by each home room unit, make up the governing body, which is known as the council. A regulation or question must be voted on and passed by a majority vote of the council and approved by majority vote of three-fourths of the home rooms before it becomes binding on the entire student body.

Commercial Club

To develop business leadership; to create more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations; and to participate in worthy undertakings for the improvement of business and the community are the purposes for which the Commercial Club is formed. All of the members have taken at least a year of Commercial work and are interested in fulfilling the aims of this organization.

Library Club

The aims of the H. H. S. Library Club are three-fold: to create a greater interest in our library among the students; to make the library of greater use to both students and faculty; and to improve the library in general. The Library Club is made up of intelligent, conscientious, wide-awake students who act as assistants in the library and help to keep active the club's purposes. The Library Club also teaches the members the use of books and libraries, accuracy, neatness, and orderliness, and allows for the development of initiative, courtesy and resourcefulness.

Girls' Monogram Club

A girl earning a letter in any recognized activity in school is eligible to become a member of this group which is a strong and recognized organization for the girls of Hopewell High School. The aims are: to support and encourage scholastic standards; to originate and sponsor class and intra-mural sports and activities. Each year the club awards a bracelet to a graduating senior girl who best personifies the ideal of sportsmanship. The selection is made by the club nominating ten senior girls. These nominees are presented to the faculty and are voted on by them by secret ballot. The one receiving the greatest number of votes receives the bracelet. The choice is based upon the following traits: sincerity, honesty, leadership, participation in activities, scholarship, cleanliness, courtesy, neatness, and helpfulness.

Blue and Gold

The Blue and Gold, so named for the school colors, is Hopewell High School's bi-monthly newspaper. It was first started in the spring of 1945 and at that time it was mimeographed by the students at school. Now it is a four page printed paper. The paper keeps the student body informed on sports, club meetings, assemblies, and the latest gossip. The staff is composed of interested students who apply for staff positions and are interviewed by the editor by whom the most capable applicants are chosen.

Future Homemakers of America

The Hopewell Chapter is affiliated with the Virginia Association of F. H. A. and takes an active part in the activities of the organization. The purposes of this club are: to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking; to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership; to encourage democracy in home and community life; to work for good home and family life for all; to promote international good will; to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life; to promote wholesome individual and group recreation; to further interest in home economics. Before a student can be installed as a member of the club she has to meet certain qualifications. She must be familiar with the Chapter Constitution; know the creed, color, flower, song, motto, and officers of the organization. She must be presently enrolled or have been enrolled in home economics. Initiation and federation dues must also be paid.

Junior Red Cross

The Hopewell High School Junior Red Cross Chapter is a member of the national organization and it is dedicated to the same purposes as is the senior branch. The major activity of the club each year is the collection of donations to be used in Red Cross work. However, other projects are also pursued, such as the collecting and sending of toys to children in foreign countries as was done this year.

Accomplishments of the Choir

Director: Mr. Russell MacMeans

Through the efforts of Mr. Russell MacMeans the music department in Hopewell High School has been greatly increased in number, equipment and prestige. Mr. MacMeans came to Hopewell High School in 1943 and at that time the choir was a small group consisting of approximately nineteen members. The entire choir now has ninety-five members of which forty-four are boys.

The choir has given numerous programs for school assemblies, at churches, and for clubs and public performances. One project undertaken annually is the Christmas Music for the Woman's Club of Hopewell which was broadcast this year by WHAP, our local radio station. This program is also presented at Camp Lee each year. While Mr. MacMeans has been director the choir has presented four operettas—"The Forest Prince", "Chonita", "The Pirates of Penzance", and "The Mikado". The choice for this year is "Bobbie" a modern operetta. The State Festival is a yearly goal for the choir. The mixed chorus and the girls' chorus have always rated high in these festivals and last year both received superior ratings.

Accomplishments of the Band

Under Mr. MacMean's excellent guidance the band, along with the choir, has gained recognition not only locally, but in surrounding cities and throughout the state. The band has grown from fifteen members to sixty-six members including three majorettes, from fifteen uniforms to ninety-five uniforms. Forty uniforms were a gift of the Chamber of Commerce "Band Boosters", and forty were presented by the School Board.

The band has performed excellently for our assemblies, at the football games, and at other public appearances. It entered the Group B competition in the State Festival last year and received a superior rating which gave it the privilege to attend the Virginia All-State Festival at Charlottesville, Virginia. So well did the band perform that it was issued invitations by important cities and towns this year to participate in numerous parades. Among them were the Santa Claus Parade and the parade for the dedication of the Confederate Monument in Hopewell; the Petersburg Toy Parade in which it won third place; two Safety Patrol parades in Washington, D. C.; the Toy Parade in Richmond, which made it the talk of the town; and finally, the greatest honor yet—marching in the Tobacco Bowl Festival Parade in Richmond. Mr. Henry Schwarzschild of Richmond, presented a plaque in recognition of its fine performance in this Parade.

We can be justly proud of the achievements of both the girls and boys participating in sports for this school year. Not only have they displayed their accustomed fine sportsmanship, but they have excelled in some of the sports for which they have been recognized and given high honors. The girls hockey team had a successful season and three girls received top honors on the All State and All Prep Teams. The football team won for the first time the Virginia State Championship in Class A Group I. Four boys were selected for the all State Team, while two received honorable mention. One boy was placed on the All Southern Team and received honorable mention on the All American Team.

Credit goes to all of the coaches for producing successful seasons in all sports by excellent coaching and hard and constant work.

HOPEWELL 38—VICTORIA 0

Topping the Panthers in all departments the Hopewell Blue Devils opened the gridiron season with what Coach Merner called a "pretty fair" game. It took the Devils ten minutes to strike but after that they hit pay dirt continuously.

The Devils piled up ten first downs to Victoria's four. Coach Merner had praise for every man on the squad singling out Dean, Scruggs, McDaniel, and Foley.

HOPEWELL 57—HIGHLAND SPRINGS 0

The second game of the season found the Blue Devils on their own gridiron again, this time facing the Highland Springs aggregation. Jumping to a 19-0 lead in the first quarter, the Devils had clear sailing from then on, scoring two touchdowns in each of the remaining three quarters. Nick Klonis and Mike Foley were the high scorers with two T. D.'s each, while Sonny Dean, Brodie, Pentecost, Takesian, and McDaniel chalked up one a piece. The Devils made three of the six conversions to bring the score to a dazzling 57-0 defeat for the Springers.

HOPEWELL 39—KINSTON 0

For their third straight onesided victory the Blue Devils totaled four hundred seventeen yards rushing and through the air to the Red Devils one hundred forty-five. Klonis scored eighteen points. Both John and Louis Dean starred at quarterback position. McDaniel didn't score but did much carrying of the ball to victory.

The line play was the key to Hopewell's big win over the experienced Kinston veterans. Though outweighed by ten pounds the Blue and Gold linesmen were poison to the Red and White.

HOPEWELL 26—PETERSBURG 18

The fourth game of the season, the big game, saw Hopewell opposing their traditional rivals—Petersburg. Hopewell's spirits were considerably dampened at halftime when Petersburg led by a two touchdown margin. The third quarter was nip and tuck all the way with neither team being able to score but Hopewell's Devils broke loose in the fourth period for three touchdowns. The most spectacular play was Johnny Dean's forty-three yard run through every red jersey on the field crossing into the end zone with a tackler on his leg. Klonis and McDaniel accounted for the other scores of the game.

HOPEWELL 52—GRANBY 0

The next victory was over Granby High of Norfolk. The powerful Devil line held the Comets to a minus 10 yards. Every Devil was on his toes. Combined efforts brought the top heavy victory. Scoring in the game were McDaniel, J. Dean, Foley, Scruggs, Elmore, and L. Dean. McDaniel scored three of the eight markers.

Football Resumes

HOPEWELL 35—BENEDICTINE 6

Benedictine's fighting Irish were the next to fall at the hands of the Blue Devils. Foley took the spotlight for the Devils as he led the scoring attack with three touchdowns while McDaniel accounted for two and completed five perfect conversions. As usual the Hopewell linemen starred from end to end.

HOPEWELL 18—JOHN MARSHALL 0

Slushing through the mud the Hopewell Blue Devils had to end the contest with J. M. by an 18-0 win. The Devils made 15 first downs to J. M.'s seven. All three scores came in the first half and were accounted for by Scruggs, J. Dean, and Klonis. Cormany and Askew starred in line play. This victory gave the Big Blue second place in Group 1 standings with Glass High above them with four wins.

HOPEWELL 23—PORTSMOUTH 0

Spoiling what probably was one of the most elaborate high school homecomings of the year, the Blue Devils romped over Woodrow Wilson 28-0. The hard charging line all but stole the show from the flashier backs. Klonis sparked in the first quarter on a lateral and sixty-three yard run. Johnny Dean scored the only T. D. of the first half, but the Devils came back after half-time to score three more touchdowns with Foley, Takesian, and McDaniel sharing the honors.

HOPEWELL 54—NEWPORT NEWS 0

The Typhoon of Newport News, rated by many as the team which might upset the unbeaten Devils, went down under a whopping 54-0 touchdown deluge. T. D.'s were plentiful. Scruggs took care of two, Klonis, two, Foley, one, Brodie, two and Krumel, the final six points. Bud Jones, Linwood Cox, and Dickie Ackerman stood out in a line that played championship football all evening.

HOPEWELL 26—THOMAS JEFFERSON 0

BLUE DEVILS WIN STATE TITLE!! Hopewell's high-g geared Blue Devils brought their 1949 season to a glorious end by earning the State Championship with a 26-0 win over the Jeffersonians at the Richmond City Stadium. Sparked by the superb passing of Johnny Dean and championship line play, the Devils rolled up 235 yards through the air and tallied every score on a pass play. McDaniel scored in the last minutes of the first quarter while Brodie crossed over in the later part of the second quarter. After half time Takesian and Klonis both tallied for Hopewell leaving a dejected T. J. team way behind on the scoring end. Neither eleven was able to generate a scoring punch after the final Hopewell score.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!

My Dear

He had lots of fun at that old game when we won the championship (Yeah!)
Freezing was it?

I wish we could have gone on that Rayride tonight but maybe they'll have another to take its place. It was fun at the "Friday Night" singing in the Town hall. I am to visit a cousin in New W.

[illegible]

Harry darling,

I will never ever forget you. I'll always remember the first song notes in my basement - the pop corn & the new forget the rest of your love went to with the bells.. you are really all right Harry & you'll always hold a warm spot in my heart -

Love, Huey & Jackie

Trill.

P.S. You're the best lover - if you'll pardon the impression - but it's true!

P.S. P. Don't smoke too much now!

Here's to the times
we went to the beach and the Friday night street.

We sure did have fun last Sunday didn't we? Well I did my way. That was a wonderful movie.
I'm so glad that I went. (I throw up if you want to)

"Good Luck to my dearest boyfriend"

fore,
Jackie
fore.
